

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
for the
MASTER DEGREE PROGRAM
in
The Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences

Department:	Earth and Environmental Sciences (approved by EES Faculty: September, 25, 2012)
Degree:	Master's of Science (M.Sc.)
GPA Minimum:	3.0
TOEFL Minimum:	Paper:	550	Computer:	213 (80 for iBT)
Test Requirements:	GMAT	N.A.	GRE	Verbal and Quantitative) (300)	AW: (see below)
Provisional Admittance:	Yes	Yes, with faculty approval	No
Admissions Formula, if applicable:
Applications Processed (when):	November 30 th
Are your current graduate admission requirements posted online?	Yes	URL if yes:		No	No
Additional Requirements:	Applicants who have completed the GRE test with a minimum total score of 300 (Verbal + Quantitative) will be preferred. While scores for Analytical Writing (AW) are not required, applicants with AW scores > 3.5 will be highly considered.
	It is mandatory that all applicants identify and secure a thesis advisor from available EES graduate faculty prior to acceptance into the program. Students who fail to speak to, and secure an advisor will not be considered.				